FULL-TIME · PROJECT MANAGER TRACK

Studio Engineer

Draw it. Build it.
Lead it.

At Vonmod, the people who run our projects started by drawing them. Every Project Manager and Project Architect here learned the work from the inside: modeling the cabinet, detailing the joint, standing at the bench when it came off the CNC. This role is that beginning.

01 THE PATH A career, not a seat.

STEP 01
Studio Engineer
Master drafting & engineering: models, shop drawings, BOMs, work orders.
YOU START HERE

STEP 02
Project Manager
Lead your own projects from kickoff to closure: schedule, budget, project team.

STEP 03
Project Architect
Our most senior studio role, earned with 3+ years at Vonmod across both.

02 THE WORK Where you start, where you're headed.

Drafting & engineering

- 3D manufacturing models and annotated shop drawing sets in Cabinet Vision and Rhino
- Material, door and assembly schedules
- Sync models to Innergy and build accurate BOMs
- Resolve redlines before production

Production handoff & R&D

- Work orders and instructions, ready to post
- Help lead pre-production meetings
- Track and resolve remill requests
- Test new Cabinet Vision tools; draft and direct prototype builds

Project management (next)

- Lead Scope → VFX → Verification → Production → Install
- Steady point of contact for owners, architects, contractors and vendors
- Manage scope, schedule and budget changes with clarity

03 GREAT FIT What you bring.

- 2+ years making and drawing things people paid for: design-build, millwork, furniture, fabrication, CNC/CAM or hands-on architecture
- Calm when things go sideways; problems are most of the job
- Fluent 3D modeling. Cabinet Vision a plus; we'll teach it
- Clear, empathetic communication
- Want a career here, leading projects in a few years
- Bonus: architecture, industrial design or engineering degree

04 CORE VALUES You'll love it here if you live these.

Team Culture
Collaboration runs across departments and project teams.

Full Engagement
Discipline until the job is done.

Detail Oriented
Sweating the details is in your DNA.

Continual Growth Mindset
Learn through feedback and iteration.

Passion for the Challenge
Push your limits to deliver at the highest level.
